

General Data Protection Regulation May 2018

The new General Data Protection Regulation comes in to force on 25 May 2018 to replace the current Data Protection Act. The Trust takes data security very seriously and is committed to ensuring it meets and complies with the new regulation in the use, processing and holding of personal data.

The Trustees have fully reviewed and updated all of its data protection policies and practices to comply with the change in this legislation and have a named Data Protection Officer for the Trust.

The Data Protection Officer for the Trust is Ross Myhill who can be contacted by email: dpo@sigmatrust.org.uk

The Sigma Trust is the Registered Data Controller for all of our school